

THE LABOR MANAGEMENT PARTNERSHIP PRESENTS:

BEATING the ODDS

When Cassandra Phelps decided to take advantage of the career development programs available through the Ben Hudnall Memorial Trust, the single mother of two thought she'd be lucky to complete one college-level course.

But once she got started, the A's started rolling in.
Today she is in a place she never imagined when her journey began.

Watch the movie or order it on CD on LMPartnership.org. Type Beating the Odds in the search box on the home page.
